Re: Darling International

Darling International cleaned out the grease trap on February 11, 2010. The County had previously contracted with Darling International however the County does not currently have a contract with the company. This service is covered under the contract with Carter Goble Lee.

I called and spoke with Lois Bradley at Darling International and she advised me she thought the County still had a contract with their company. She advised me their company had not received notice of the contract not renewing and therefore their company had provided services on February 11, 2010.

I advised Ms. Bradley the Sheriff's Office would not need any further services from Darling International.

Due to the County not having a contract with Darling International this service was provided without a purchase order.
