RE: Sole Source Request for Cataloging, Inter-Library Loan and Access Services

Dear Ms. Gonzales:

Thank you for your recent inquiry concerning the availability of OCLC Online Computer Library Center, Inc.'s ("OCLC") online cataloging, interlibrary loan and access services (collectively "OCLC Services") in Texas.

OCLC's online cataloging utility WorldCat® is a proprietary bibliographic database from which bibliographic records can be exported by Fort Bend County Libraries into the Library's database using OCLC's online cataloging services. The bibliographic records contained in WorldCat will also facilitate resource sharing for the Library with libraries in Texas, nationally and internationally using OCLC's resource sharing services.

OCLC Online Computer Library Center, Inc. is a nonprofit membership organization which has been granted tax-exempt status by the United States government under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3). OCLC is the sole provider of OCLC Services in Texas.

OCLC looks forward to continuing to provide OCLC Services to the Fort Bend County Libraries.

Sincerely,

OCLC ONLINE COMPUTER LIBRARY
CENTER, INC.
