Attitude at Work-How to Give Yourself Permission to Love Your Job

Good attitudes on a team do not guarantee its success, but bad attitudes guarantee its failure. Recognize how an individual's attitude affects the team's performance and ultimately the organization's performance. Recognize how your attitude can make or break your professional life. Attitude is contagious! Make sure you are catching the right one.

Using Technology to Achieve Truly Interactive Training

Performing physical tasks combined with cognitive processing in environments that are similar to their job, while increasing proficiency.... these are the reasons that simulation based training is so important and necessary. This course will introduce these concepts in an interactive environment and provide those that attend with examples of how to integrate these concepts into their own training programs.

Hate Crimes Training

Through a series of role-plays, scenarios, and discussions participants will begin to understand the unique motivation behind hate crimes and the way in which hate crimes not only affect the victim but the entire community. Participants will also discuss the importance of appropriately responding to these messages. This discussion will include a brief overview of ADL's website which is designed especially for law enforcement officers and offers resources regarding hate crimes on both local and federal levels.

Identity Theft with a Twist – Compromising the Innocent

This workshop will introduce participants to various techniques that criminals are using to commit identity theft. Through case examples, this workshop will provide insight into how different law enforcement agencies investigate this ever growing crime. In addition, participants will hear first hand from an Assistant United States Attorney the things law enforcement investigators should do to present a solid case to be prosecuted.
