

Phprep Summit 2013

TUESDAY, MARCH 12, 2013

A Community United: An Integrated Response to the Aurora Mass Shooting

8:00 AM – 10:00 AM

Session Type: Opening, Plenary

Where: Marquis Ballroom

On July 20, 2012 during a midnight showing at a local Aurora, Colorado movie theatre, a gunman opened fire as people tried to escape the theatre. Area hospitals surged to meet the needs of injured vic...

Applying lessons learned from the 2009 Presidential Inauguration in 2013, Effective Collaboration for National Security Special Events (NSSEs) Planning

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Session Type: Interactive

Where: A708

Health and Medical planning for high profile National Security Special Events such as the State of the Union Address and Presidential Inauguration in the District of Columbia involves collaboration at...

Building and Sustaining Successful Healthcare Coalitions

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Session Type: Interactive

Where: International 10

The US Department of Health and Human Services Assistant Secretary for Preparedness and Response (ASPR) Hospital Preparedness Program has placed significant emphasis on the development and growth of '...

Connecting The Dots Between SNS and Collaborative Partnerships: The 12 Most Valuable Lessons Learned

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Session Type: Interactive Ignite

Where: International 8

Behind each local public health planner, is a narrative, lessons learned, and a real life experience in collaboration with local partners. This session will ignite the "story behind the story" for tw...

Critical Incident Analysis and Reporting to Enhance Public Health Emergency Preparedness

10:30 AM - 5:00 PM

Session Type: 4.5 Hour Workshop

Where: International 6

The National Health Security Strategy calls on the nation's public health emergency preparedness (PHEP) system to adapt systematic quality improvement (QI) methods and a culture of quality improvement...

Disaster Health: Introducing a Framework for Learning and Moving Toward Defining a Discipline

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Session Type: Interactive

Where: A701

This interactive session will introduce the body of work available in disaster health education and training in an illustrative context that can further define the core curricula, training, and resear...

Dispense Assist: Online Screening Tool for Mass Dispensing and Vaccination Implementation/Training Workshop

10:30 AM - 5:00 PM

Session Type: 4.5 Hour Workshop

Where: International 4

Dispense Assist (DA) is a 2012 NACCHO Model Practice award-winning tool that was developed to enhance mass dispensing and vaccination operations and offer online screening capability. This workshop/tr...

Emergency Messaging for the Electronic Age

10:30 AM - 5:00 PM

Session Type: 4.5 Hour Workshop

Where: A703

The landscape for communication and information sharing in public health is evolving rapidly. The implications for managing messages and engaging the public, especially during times of crisis, can be...

Emergency Preparedness Activities in Alabama, Rhode Island, and New Hampshire

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Session Type: Interactive

Where: A705

In recent years, an emphasis on web 2.0 technologies combined with more technologically advanced learning management systems have resulted in new instructional modalities and evaluation protocols for...

FBI-CDC Joint Criminal-Epidemiological Investigations Workshop

10:30 AM - 5:00 PM

Session Type: 4.5 Hour Workshop

Where: A702

Events such as the September 11th attack in 2001 and the mailing of anthrax letters in September and October of that same year have proven that America is vulnerable to acts of terrorism. Current inf...

National Collaborative for Bio-Preparedness

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Session Type: Interactive

Where: A601

The National Collaborative for Bio-Preparedness (NCB-Prepared) was established in 2010 to create a biosurveillance resource to enhance situational awareness and emergency preparedness. This joint-inst...

New Strategies for Pandemic Antiviral Distribution and Dispensing: A Workshop for State and Local Public Health

10:30 AM - 5:00 PM

Session Type: 4.5 Hour Workshop

Where: A706

The 2009 H1N1 influenza pandemic provided an opportunity for federal, state, and local public health to utilize more than 10 years of preparedness and planning efforts. Public health partners were ab...

Pediatric surge Planning- Integrating Public Health, Healthcare and Emergency Management

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Session Type: Interactive

Where: L504

In the event of an emergency, it is imperative for public health, healthcare, and emergency management entities to work together to help mitigate the surge of patients on the community's healthcare sy...

Public Health Preparedness and Climate Change: Focusing the Lens

10:30 AM - 5:00 PM

Session Type: 4.5 Hour Workshop

Where: A704

Climate change is affecting public health and its impact will become more dramatic with time. As extreme temperatures become more common and severe weather events increase in frequency and severity,...

The Adaptive Response Metric—An analysis of the 2009–10 H1N1 outbreak

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Session Type: Interactive

Where: A602

this end requires that the ARM (a) be generally applicable to different public health agencies within a given locale and to similar agencies in different locales, (b) be appropriate for responses to d...

The Importance of Planning for Heat-related Morbidity and Mortality

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM
Session Type: Interactive
Where: International 5

Despite heat-related illness resulting in hundreds of deaths every year and thousands of emergency department visits, it is difficult for planning efforts to gain traction outside of major cities. A...

The incorporation of new online instructional modalities and evaluation protocols in public health

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM
Session Type: Interactive
Where: A707

In recent years, an emphasis on web 2.0 technologies combined with more technologically advanced learning management systems have resulted in new instructional modalities and evaluation protocols for...

What Policy Makers Need to Hear from Preparedness Practitioners about Community Engagement

10:30 AM - 12:00 PM
Session Type: Interactive
Where: International 7

Community engagement is enshrined in federal PHEP grant guidance, national consensus statements on preparedness, and current principles of public health practice. But does its popularity signify its c...

A Public Health Risk Assessment Tool that Incorporates the Needs of At-Risk Populations into Public Health Preparedness Planning

1:30 PM - 5:00 PM
Session Type: 3 Hour Workshop
Where: A602

Planning for the public health consequences of disasters requires an assessment of the probability of hazards and the vulnerabilities unique to a given jurisdiction. The Center for Public Health Readin...

Anthrax Exposure Among Pregnant and Postpartum Women: Putting Guidance Into Action

1:30 PM - 5:00 PM
Session Type: 3 Hour Workshop
Where: International B

As the nation develops a strategy for a possible anthrax event, it is imperative that pregnant and postpartum women are considered in pre-event planning. Not only are pregnant women classified as 'at-...

Bystander Training for Assisting Victims of an Explosive Incident

1:30 PM - 5:00 PM
Session Type: 3 Hour Workshop
Where: International A

Introduction: First responders normally have quick response times to emergency calls but there may be life-saving measures that may be taken by persons who happen to find themselves unharmed and at t...

Cot-to-Cot: A Model for Building Community Shelter Capacity to Meet Population Health Needs

1:30 PM - 5:00 PM
Session Type: 3 Hour Workshop
Where: A705

Identifying and meeting access and functional needs of clients in general population congregate care shelters is an essential task.

When citizens evacuate to a shelter they may become a population...

Getting it Straight: Teaching the "Real" Facts about Nuclear Plant Explosions

1:30 PM - 3:00 PM
Session Type: Interactive
Where: A701

There were many lessons to be learned from the Fukushima II Dai Ni nuclear power plant explosion following the earthquake and tsunami in 2011. The 3-stage disaster awakened the world's preparedness a...

Helping Your Community Get Back on Its Feet Quickly: How to Improve Disaster Recovery Through Robust Planning and Tracking

1:30 PM - 5:00 PM

Session Type: 3 Hour Workshop

Where: A601

Prior disaster experience in Joplin, Japan, and the U.S. Gulf Coast have underscored that community recovery from disaster is a complex and lengthy process that can be expedited with improved pre-plan...

Integrating Primary Care Clinics and Providers into Community Healthcare Preparedness Planning

1:30 PM - 3:00 PM

Session Type: Interactive

Where: International 5

The importance of the role of the primary care provider (PCP) office in the community healthcare system became increasingly evident during the response to the H1N1 influenza pandemic. Often serving as...

New PHEP Performance Measures: Current Implementation Status, Lessons Learned from Budget Period 1 Mid-Year Data, and Implications for Training and Technical Assistance

1:30 PM - 3:00 PM

Session Type: Interactive

Where: International 7

In preparation for the new five-year Public Health Emergency Preparedness (PHEP) cooperative agreement, CDC identified 15 public health capabilities critical to building and sustaining state and local...

Preparing Leaders for Public Health Crisis Today and Tomorrow

1:30 PM - 5:00 PM

Session Type: 3 Hour Workshop

Where: International 8

As public health assumes an ever increasing role in responding to disasters and other crises, two areas stand out as important skills for public health leaders: crisis leadership and foundational lead...

Public Health and the Law: Legal Tools to Assist Public Health Practitioners in Responding to Infectious Disease Outbreaks and other Public Health Emergencies

1:30 PM - 5:00 PM

Session Type: 3 Hour Workshop

Where: International C

While many jurisdictions reviewed and reformed emergency preparedness laws following the terrorist incidents of 9/11 and the anthrax attacks, lessons learned from recent public health emergencies, inc...

Real Tools For Emergency Preparedness

1:30 PM - 3:00 PM

Session Type: Interactive

Where: A707

By understanding which issues public health, emergency management and other professionals perceive as impediments to serving the needs of vulnerable populations, elected officials and decision makers...

Strengthening Community Health Resilience through Integrated Preparedness for Behavioral Health and Functional Needs

1:30 PM - 5:00 PM

Session Type: 3 Hour Workshop

Where: L504

This workshop will provide a highly interactive venue for participants to identify best practices and practical approaches that public health and healthcare professionals and planners can implement to...

Video-Savvy Crisis Response: Using YouTube, Skype and uStream for Effective Communication in an Emergency

1:30 PM - 5:00 PM

Session Type: 3 Hour Workshop

Where: A708

Social media has transformed the way Public Health programs are expected to communicate in an emergency. To be prepared, it is essential that the most effective social media tools be integrated into c...

Community Engagement for Environmental Health Emergencies in Vulnerable Communities: Anticipations for Replication

3:00 PM - 5:00 PM

Session Type: Interactive

Where: International 7

Disasters have the potential for negative long-lasting repercussions on communities, especially related to environmental health services (i.e., food, water, shelter, sanitation and hygiene, and vector...

Creating Partnerships for Pediatric Preparedness

3:00 PM - 5:00 PM

Session Type: Interactive

Where: International 10

Children comprise 25 percent of our population, but they have often been neglected in disasters. The National Commission on Children and Disasters' 2009 and 2010 reports highlighted the need for pedi...

Healthcare Facility Evacuation: The NYC Experience

3:00 PM - 5:00 PM

Session Type: Interactive

Where: A707

On August 27, 2011, Hurricane Irene made landfall in New York City requiring a mandatory evacuation of areas that could potential flood. In the 96 hours leading up to this incident, an interagency gro...

Improving Preparedness Practice: What's Research Got to Do with It?

3:00 PM - 5:00 PM

Session Type: Interactive

Where: International 5

The Center for Disease Control and Prevention's Office of Public Health Preparedness and Response (OPHPR) promotes and enhances emergency response capabilities of the nation "by emphasizing accountabi...

In the Wake of Disaster: One Hospital's Response to July 20, 2012 Mass Shootings in Colorado

3:00 PM - 5:00 PM

Session Type: Interactive

Where: A701

On July 20, 2012, a gunman entered a sold out movie theatre in Aurora, Colorado and began randomly shooting movie goers. Patrons fled the theatre, many severely wounded. Fifty eight injured were taken...

Events calendar powered by Trumba

Printed: Thursday, January 03, 2013 at 9:55 AM PST

Calendar events displayed in Eastern Daylight Time