IACA 2016 CONFERENCE

Race to the Conference!

The International Association of Crime Analysts (IACA) is pleased to present the 2016 Annual Training Conference.

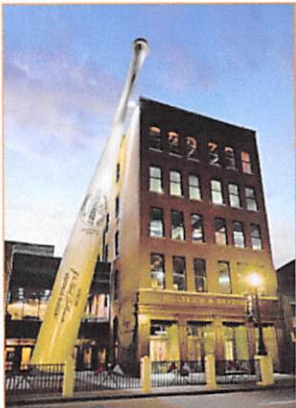

The annual training conference is an opportunity to learn new strategies and tactics, discuss ideas, network with peers from across the United States and abroad, and meet new professional associates.

This year's conference promises to continue the trend of providing excellent speakers and presenters that represent the very best in our profession. Topics will include tactical and strategic analysis, problem analysis, and hands-on computer labs. Specialty topics such as traffic analysis, mapping, and case studies will also be included. There are classes for every skill level! Several vendors will be available during the week to highlight their products and answer questions.

Conference Location:

- The Beautiful Marriott Downtown Louisville will be our host hotel. In addition to a great meeting space, guests of the property enjoy proximity to the following attractions:
- Louisville Slugger Museum
- 4th Street Live
- Historic Main Street, "Museum Row" and the NuLu District
- Churchill Downs & the Kentucky Derby Museum
- Woodford Reserve
- The Belle of Louisville Steamboat
- Muhammad Ali Center
- This conference location has it all!
