

www.nigp.org Home Contact Us Privacy Policy and Terms of Use

NIGP FORUM | AUGUST 27 - 30, 2017 | SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH

The largest educational conference exclusively for public procurement professionals

Nav 1
Nav 2
Nav 3
Nav 4

Utah's nickname is The Beehive State. The beehive is a symbol of hard work and industry and is the official state emblem. The honeybee is the state insect.

SALT LAKE CITY FACTS

- The City consistently ranks in the Forbes' top five list for "America's Best Cities for Young Professionals"
- The City is known as the "Crossroads of the West" because of its central location
- The average snowfall in the mountains near Salt Lake City is 500 inches
- The City ranks No. 1 as "Best U.S. Hiking City" in America according to National Geographic

Read more

TOP 5 REASONS TO ATTEND

- Network with 1000+ public procurement colleagues
- Choose from 100+ workshops on trending topics and listen to inspiring plenary speakers
- Exchange ideas and best practices with peers who have been there, done that
- Meet 200+ government suppliers showcasing the latest products and services
- Experience the camaraderie that makes Forum the #1 procurement event

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING

"I attended my first Forum in August (2016) at National Harbor, Maryland. I will be back next year. I love NIGP and how it supports its members!"

- Gyselle Pino,
Port Miami, FL

STRATEGIC PARTNERSENTERPRISE SPONSORS/NIGP BUSINESS COUNCIL*HOME*ABOUT

About NIGP
About Forum
Future Forums

EXHIBITORS

What you need to know
Exhibitors
Floor Plan

ABOUT SALT LAKE CITY

Did you know
What to do

COMMUNICATE

Twitter
LinkedIn
Facebook
YouTube
NSite

NIGP HOME

Copyright © 2017 National Institute of Governmental Purchasing. All rights reserved. To report possible copyright infringement, contact Ronni Levine, Web Content Manager at rlevine@nigp.org or 703-736-8900.

Powered by Higher Logic