CERTIFICATE OF COMPLETION

To receive your Certificate of Completion you must attend all sessions and be present through graduation on the final day of the program. Please see attendance policy below.

Payment Information

The tuition for this course is $1,399.00. The conference fee is $399.00. The funding agency listed on your registration will be billed for tuition and conference fees prior to the course opening date. If no agency is listed, you will be billed personally and must forward the invoice to the responsible agency. If you are responsible for fees, please remit payment upon receipt of this confirmation.

Attendance Policy

The National Judicial College (NJC) has a responsibility to the funding agencies that sponsor your attendance. The NJC must ensure that the tax dollars spent on continuing education are utilized for maximum benefit. It is, therefore, the policy and practice of The NJC not to award a Certificate of Completion to any participant who is consistently tardy or fails to attend all educational sessions.

Cancellation Policy

A full tuition and conference fee refund is available if your cancellation notice is received 30 days prior to the start date of the course. As a reminder, you need to provide cancellation notices to both The NJC and the location with which you made hotel arrangements. You are financially responsible for any fees charged should you fail to cancel your travel/hotel reservations.

Attire

The temperature in Denver, Colorado in September fluctuates from an average high of 57 degrees Fahrenheit to an average low of 47 degrees Fahrenheit. Please check www.weather.com for current information. Casual attire is appropriate during class sessions.

Continuing Judicial or Legal Education Credits (CJE/CLE)

CJE/CLE credits are provided to participants via a uniform certificate of attendance form upon completion of applicable NJC courses. Participants are responsible for filing this form with their state's Continuing Legal Education offices where required. While NJC courses are nationally recognized by CJE/CLE commissions, boards or bars, participants are asked to please follow their state's specific filing rules to have CJE/CLE credits approved for this course.

The amount of CJE/CLE credit you are eligible to receive may be reduced if you are absent during any class sessions. If you need to leave during the class, please make the appropriate deduction from your CJE/CLE request.

Courtesy to Faculty and Fellow Participants

Please note scheduled breaks will be offered during the class. Therefore, out of respect for your colleagues and speakers we ask that you not engage in activities that may be distracting during the class. Before each session, we ask that all electronic devices be muted or turned off. If you must take a call during the presentation, please take the call outside of the room.

Additional Information

- Additional classes can be viewed on the NJC website at www.judges.org
- If you would like information about the NJC Certificate in Judicial Development program, please visit <http://www.judges.org/academic/certificate-program/>

Judicial Studies Program Exam (JSP)

This course qualifies for credit in the Judicial Studies degree program upon successful completion of the course and the course exam for those participants who are candidates in the University of Nevada, Reno Masters or Ph.D. Judicial Studies degree programs. Please see the course program attorney during the class for information regarding the exam. Additional information about this degree program can be viewed at <http://www.judicialstudies.unr.edu/>.

(NOTE: This exam is optional for non-candidate participants.)

A take home JSP exam will be emailed following the conclusion of the course.

The NJC is On Call for You
