

Wednesday July 24 | MakeOffices at the Wharf | 800 Maine Ave SW Suite 200 (2nd Floor)

4:45pm - PLC Registration

5:00pm - SESSION ONE | *Mapping Hate Crimes

Description: While local and federal law enforcement agencies maintain hate crimes and bias incident reporting practices, these acts are often underreported and go unaddressed. This session explores a set of mapping tools that allow policymakers to better understand the geographic landscape of hate activities.

---

Thursday July 25 | Aspen Institute | 2300 N St NW Suite 700 (7th Floor)

8:30am - 9:00am Breakfast

9:00am - 10:30am SESSION ONE | *Introductions and Inclusion Campaign (Activity)

Description: Meet the America Indivisible team and fellow members of the 2019 Public Leaders for Inclusion Council (PLC). This session includes a creative messaging and public outreach activity and opportunities to get to know PLC members from across the country.

Break (10 minutes)

10:40am - 12:00pm SESSION TWO | *The Dual Challenges of Pluralism and Polarization in America (Panel)

Description: How should public officials build inclusion in their communities at a time of hyperpartisanship and socioeconomic divisions driving conflict and disengagement between diverse Americans? This session explores national trends in pluralism and polarization.

Lunch Break (30 minutes)

12:30pm - 1:45pm SESSION THREE | *The Landscape of Bigotry and Hate Crimes Reporting (Panel)

Description: Bigotry and hate come in a variety of shapes and forms. While the U.S. Department of Justice tracks hate crimes reporting across the country, research centers and academic organizations are building data and metrics that convey the breadth of this phenomenon. This session introduces participants to the latest research to inform data-driven policies for building inclusion.

Break (15 minutes)

2:00pm - 3:15pm SESSION FOUR | How Multiracial and Multicultural Coalitions Tackle Hate (Panel)

Description: A network of multiracial and multicultural organizations are joining forces to challenge the many ways bigotry harms diverse communities. Learn about the role of coalition building across bigotry-impacted groups and ways that public officials can provide platforms for collective action.

3:15pm - 4:30pm SESSION FIVE | Exploring Multireligious Models to Challenge Bigotry (Panel)

Description: It's time to move beyond interfaith dialogue. Multireligious organizations are bridging divides through popular media and messaging, legislative advocacy, and neighbor-to-neighbor engagement. This session explores the most promising models for ethical and faith based work to build inclusion.

4:30PM - 5:30pm SESSION SIX | PLC Mutual Aid Society and Closing The Day (Activity)

Description: No public official should be an island, especially in the critical work to build inclusion across our communities. This session features a collaborative activity and discussions of present-day challenges faced by PLC members and open questions from Summit Day One.

---

Friday July 26 | Newseum | 555 Pennsylvania Ave NW (Arrival at C Street Group Lobby)

8:00am - 8:30am Breakfast

8:30am - 9:50am SESSION ONE | Boogeymen and Radicals: Confronting Mainstream Media Biases (Panel)

Description: One of the most significant contributing factors to hate and bigotry in the U.S. is the perpetuation of stereotypes, tropes, and misinformation about diverse communities in the mainstream media.

Transition to Auditorium Break (10 minutes)

10:00am - 11:00am SESSION TWO | Crash Course in Civic Health (Lightning Talks)

Description: One proven method for building inclusion and resilience within and across diverse communities is by bolstering the civic health of all. This session will describe metrics for and the latest reporting on the civic health of communities impacted by bigotry. Leading civic organizations will also present lightning talks about their latest efforts.

Break (15 minutes)

11:15pm - 12:30pm SESSION THREE | Religious Freedom at the Newseum (Tour Talks)

Description: Explore the Newseum’s exhibits on the religious freedom dimensions of the First Amendment.

Lunch Break - Newseum Cafe

2:30pm - 4:00pm SESSION FIVE | *Navigating Civil and Difficult Dialogue (Workshop)

Description: Civic leaders are uniquely positioned to help cultivate an informed and engaged citizenry. Having the ability to facilitate dialogue is a key leadership skill in the 21st century. As sharp ideological divisions continue to polarize our communities, we need leaders who have the skills to engage people and communities who hold a variety of legal, ideological, religious and nonreligious perspectives. This workshop equips participants with the ability to lead civil dialogues and tackle challenging conversations in the process.

4:00pm - 5:00pm SESSION SIX | *PLC Mutual Aid Society and Closing The Summit (Activity)

Description: For the final session of the PLC Summit, participants will explore their respective visions for inclusion and anti-bigotry efforts in their home communities. This session features a collaborative activity and discussions of present-day challenges faced by PLC members and open questions from Summit Day Two.x