C&T understands and agrees that this Agreement is for staff augmentation services and that C&T is not guaranteed that County will require a minimum level of service. C&T will only provide Services as requested by County.

2. Term. The term of the Agreement is effective upon execution by both parties, and shall expire no later than September 30, 2021, unless terminated sooner pursuant to the Agreement. County is a body corporate and politic under the laws of the State of Texas and claims exemption from sales and use taxes. A copy of a tax-exempt certificate will be furnished upon request. Interest resulting from late payments by County shall be governed by Chapter 2251, TEXAS GOVERNMENT CODE. County reserves the right to withhold payment pending verification of satisfactory work performed.

Mutually approved travel and mileage expenses incurred in the performance of required Services will be compensated only in accordance with the County's Travel Policy, a copy of which will be provided upon request. Receipts evidencing travel related expenditures made by C&T or C&T's subcontractors shall be submitted to the County Auditor's Office:

C&T does further understand and agree, said understanding and agreement also being of the absolute essence of this Agreement, that the total maximum compensation that C&T may become entitled to and the total maximum sum that County may become liable to pay to C&T shall not under any conditions, circumstances, or interpretations thereof exceed Five Hundred Thousand and 00/100 dollars ($500,000.00). In no event will the amount paid by the County for all services under this Agreement exceed this Limit of Appropriation without an amendment executed by the parties.

GOV'T CODE ANN. §§ 552.001 et seq., as amended, and notwithstanding any provision in the Agreement to the contrary, County will make any information related to the Agreement, or otherwise, available to third parties in accordance with the Texas Public Information Act. C&T shall indemnify and defend County against all losses, liabilities, claims, causes of action, and other expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees, arising from activities of C&T, its agents, servants or employees, performed under this agreement that result from the negligent act, error, or omission of C&T or any of C&T's agents, servants or employees.

The parties hereto acknowledge that venue is proper in Fort Bend County, Texas, for all legal actions or proceedings arising out of or relating to this Agreement and waive the right to sue or be sued elsewhere. Nothing in the Agreement shall be construed to waive the County's sovereign immunity. County does not agree to submit disputes arising out of the Agreement to binding arbitration. Therefore, any references to binding arbitration or the waiver of a right to litigate a dispute are hereby deleted. County to certain areas of its premises or systems for security reasons, and general health and safety practices and procedures.

25. Compliance with Laws. C&T shall comply with all federal, state, and local laws, statutes, ordinances, rules and regulations, and the orders and decrees of any courts or administrative bodies or tribunals in any matter affecting the performance of this Agreement, including, without limitation, Worker's Compensation laws, minimum and maximum salary and wage statutes and regulations, licensing laws and regulations. When required by County, C&T shall furnish County with certification of compliance with said laws, statutes, ordinances, rules, regulations, orders, and decrees above specified.
26. Confidential Information. C&T acknowledges that it and its employees or agents may, in the course of performing their responsibilities under this Agreement, be exposed to or acquire information that is confidential to County. Confidential Information shall be deemed not to include information that (a) is or becomes (other than by disclosure by C&T) publicly known or is contained in a publicly available document; (b) is rightfully in C&T's possession without the obligation of nondisclosure prior to the time of its disclosure under this Agreement; or (c) is independently developed by employees or agents of C&T who can be shown to have had no access to the Confidential Information.

C&T agrees to hold Confidential Information in strict confidence, using at least the same degree of care that C&T uses in maintaining the confidentiality of its own confidential information, and not to copy, reproduce, sell, assign, license, market, transfer or otherwise dispose of, give, or disclose Confidential Information to third parties or use Confidential Information for any purposes whatsoever other than the provision of Services to County hereunder, and to advise each of its employees and agents of their obligations to keep Confidential Information confidential. C&T shall use its best efforts to assist County in identifying and preventing any unauthorized use or disclosure of any Confidential Information. Without limitation of the foregoing, C&T shall advise County immediately in the event C&T learns or has reason to believe that any person who has had access to Confidential Information has violated or intends to violate the terms of this Agreement and C&T will at its expense cooperate with County in seeking injunctive or other equitable relief in the name of County or C&T against any such person. C&T agrees that, except as directed by County, C&T will not at any time during or after the term of this Agreement disclose, directly or indirectly, any Confidential Information to any person, and that upon termination of this Agreement or at County's request, C&T will promptly turn over to County all documents, papers, and other matter in C&T's possession which embody Confidential Information.

C&T acknowledges that a breach of this Section, including disclosure of any Confidential Information, or disclosure of other information that, at law or in equity, ought to remain confidential, will give rise to irreparable injury to County that is inadequately compensable in damages. Accordingly, County may seek and obtain injunctive relief against the breach or threatened breach of the foregoing undertakings, in addition to any other legal remedies that may be available. C&T acknowledges and agrees that the covenants contained herein are necessary for the protection of the legitimate business interest of County and are reasonable in scope and content.

C&T in providing all services hereunder agrees to abide by the provisions of any applicable Federal or State Data Privacy Act.

27. Termination.

- 27.1. Termination for Convenience. County may terminate this Agreement at any time upon thirty (30) days written notice.
- 27.2. Termination for Default. County may terminate the whole or any part of this Agreement for cause in the following circumstances:
  - (a). If C&T fails to timely perform services pursuant to this Agreement or any extension thereof granted by the County in writing;
  - (b). If C&T materially breaches any of the covenants or terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement or fails to perform any of the other provisions of this Agreement or so fails to make progress as to endanger performance of this Agreement in accordance with its terms, and in any of these circumstances does not cure such breach or failure to County's reasonable satisfaction within a period of ten (10) calendar days after receipt of notice from County specifying such breach or failure.
- 27.3. If, after termination, it is determined for any reason whatsoever that C&T was not in default, or that the default was excusable, the rights and obligations of the parties shall be the same as if the termination had been issued for the convenience of the County in accordance with § 27.1 above.
- 27.4. Upon termination of this Agreement, County shall compensate C&T in accordance with § 3, above, for those services which were provided under this Agreement prior to its termination and which have not been previously invoiced to County. C&T's final invoice for said services will be presented to and paid by County in the same manner set forth in § 3 above.
- 27.5. If County terminates this Agreement as provided in this Section, no fees of any type, other than fees due and payable at the Termination Date, shall thereafter be paid to C&T.
- 27.6. If County terminates this Agreement prior to the termination date, County shall not be subject to any early termination fee or other penalty.

28. Independent Contractor. In the performance of work or services hereunder, C&T shall be deemed an independent contractor, and any of its agents, employees, officers, or volunteers performing work required hereunder shall be deemed solely as employees of C&T or, where permitted, of its subcontractors. C&T and its agents, employees, officers, or volunteers shall not, by performing work pursuant to this Agreement, be deemed to be employees, agents, or servants of County and shall not be entitled to any of the privileges or benefits of County employment.
29. Publicity. Contact with citizens of Fort Bend County, media outlets, or governmental agencies shall be the sole responsibility of County. Under no circumstances whatsoever, shall C&T release any material or information developed or received in the performance of the Services hereunder without the express written permission of County, except where required to do so by law.
30. Further Assurances. Each party further agrees that it shall take any and all necessary steps and sign and execute any and all necessary documents or agreements required to implement the terms of the agreement of the parties contained in this contract, and each party agrees to refrain from taking any action, either expressly or impliedly, which would have the effect to prohibiting or hindering the performance of the other party to this Agreement.
31. Third Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement does not confer any enforceable rights or remedies upon any person other than the parties.
32. Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is determined to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable, the remaining provisions remain in full force, if the essential terms and conditions of this Agreement for each party remain valid, binding, and enforceable.
33. Dispute Resolution.
- 33.1. The parties shall attempt in good faith to resolve promptly any dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement by negotiation between the parties. In the event the dispute cannot be settled through negotiation, the parties agree to submit the dispute to mediation.
- 33.2. The party requesting mediation shall notify the other party in writing of the dispute desired to be mediated. If the parties are unable to resolve their differences within ten (10) days of the receipt of such notice, such dispute shall be submitted for mediation.
- 33.3. Each party shall be responsible for its own costs associated with the mediation.
- 33.4. The requirement to seek mediation shall be a condition required before filing an action at law or in equity, unless to do so would prevent either party from seeking relief in a court of law or equity under any applicable statute of limitations.

34. Insurance. Prior to commencement of the Services under this Agreement, C&T shall furnish County with properly executed certificates of insurance which shall evidence all insurance required and provide that such insurance shall not be canceled, except on 30 days' prior written notice to County. C&T shall provide certified copies of insurance endorsements and/or policies if requested by County. C&T shall maintain such insurance coverage from the time Services commence until Services are completed and provide replacement certificates, policies and/or endorsements for any such insurance expiring prior to completion of Services. C&T shall obtain such insurance written on an Occurrence form from such companies having Bests rating of A/VII or better, licensed or approved to transact business in the State of Texas, and shall obtain such insurance of the following types and minimum limits:

C&T will keep a log of access when its Workforce remotely accesses the County's systems. C&T will supply County with evidence of access logs concerning remote access to the County's systems upon written request from County.
