The National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges (NCJFCJ) continues to be committed to providing high-quality education while putting the health, safety, and well-being of the juvenile and family court professionals we serve first. The NCJFCJ has made the decision to have an in-person 2022 National Conference on Juvenile Justice.

The NCJFCJ is also excited to reveal the theme for this year's national conferences: Celebration Tour.

For 84 years, the NCJFCJ has led systems to change through the values of Compassion, Leadership, Education, and Community through our network of more than 30,000 juvenile and family court professionals who share in the mission of this organization. For this hopeful new year, continuing to make connections with intentions is more important than ever to fully serve ourselves through self-care while serving the children, families, and survivors of violence we represent.

Plenary sessions highlighted by topic-specific training tracks on family law, juvenile justice, child welfare, and family violence; as well as sessions highlighting innovative solutions and self-care are just the beginning of the educational offerings of the 2022 National Conference on Juvenile Justice.

Who Should Attend

This conference is designed for a wide range of disciplines and is open to all those interested in the improvement of the juvenile justice system.

Your Health and Safety

This NCJFCJ conference will be an in-person event. Attendees must provide proof of full vaccination as defined by the CDC, or proof of a negative viral COVID-19 test administered by a healthcare professional taken within 3 days of the meeting arrival date.

The wearing of a face mask is required at all in-person sessions and events.

The NCJFCJ will also adhere to the health and safety protocols for COVID-19 in Pittsburgh in accordance with the Allegheny County Health Department and the CDC.
