Hi Kaye

I took a quick look at the documents. The legal conditions are found in the assurances beginning on page 34 of the attached 36 pages. I did not see anything of concern. However, please read through it as a department to make sure you understand the requirements and that you are able to comply. Also, please hold the submission until Friday in the event that Huma is able to take a look while she is at the CLE. The CLE is a very busy one so I am not committing her to review but I also want to give her until the deadline you stated in case she is able. Often though, wifi is sketchy at those conferences and she may not be able to.

Thanks Kaye!

Hi Kaye

It did not compute

Send them here as word files and I may be able to combine as PDF

Hi Michelle,

There is something about these federal forms that will not let me combine in the usual way. So can you see if this will work? It is a pdf portfolio with each of the documents in order and you just click on the side to open the next one. I can't figure out which one is causing the issue, but when I try a regular combine it states that one of the documents will not allow the combining.

Thank you,

Kaye
