

11th National Animal Cruelty Prosecution Conference

The Association of Prosecuting Attorneys, in partnership with the Animal Legal Defense Fund, will host the 11th National Animal Cruelty Prosecution Conference on December 13-15, 2022 in Nashville, Tennessee.

The goal of this training is to provide prosecutors, law enforcement, and allied professionals with the requisite skills to strengthen links between the criminal justice system and the community by protecting our most vulnerable victims and to enhance prosecutors' ability to successfully identify and prosecute animal cruelty and animal fighting cases.

This conference is intended for prosecutors, law enforcement and animal control officers, veterinarians and related disciplines involved in the prosecution of animal cruelty crimes. Due to space restrictions, those not meeting this criteria will be contacted by APA and a full refund will be issued.

Date: December 13-15, 2022

Location: Kimpton Aertson Hotel, 2021 Broadway, Nashville, TN 37203

To secure your reservation at the discounted group rate of $187 plus applicable taxes, access the block here or call the Kimpton Aertson at 877-239-2269 and request the APA Room Block.

▶ (Self)

Cancel

Register Guest

Member Logout

Search our site...

Search

Quick Links

APA Main Website

Webinar & Resource Library

Forums

Assist with Surveys

Committees

APA Projects

Announcements

Time left to finish this form

08:43