2024 NACo Annual Conference & Exposition

July 12-15, 2024 | Hillsborough County, Fla

JUMP TO SECTION:

About the Conference

The National Association of Counties (NACo) Annual Conference is the premier gathering of elected and appointed officials from the nation's 3,069 counties, parishes and boroughs. Conference content includes discussion of federal policies impacting counties, workshops lifting up county best practices, engaging general sessions, mobile tours across our host county, and more. NACo members also have the opportunity to influence the association's direction and future during the Annual Business Meeting on the final day of the conference.

The facility incinerates garbage to produce renewable energy that is used to power adjacent Hillsborough County infrastructure, with the excess power sold back to the grid. In addition to the energy and financial benefits, processing waste via the Resource Recovery Facility reduces the county’s greenhouse gas emissions compared to landfilling. Mobile Workshop: Apollo Beach Nature Preserve The 63-acre Apollo Beach Nature Preserve, located along the eastern shore of Tampa Bay, was acquired by Hillsborough County in 1996 through its Environmental Lands Acquisition and Protection Program. The county and its partnering agencies restored native habitats, including estuarine marsh, tidal creeks, beach dunes and upland islands. Recreational amenities include nature trails, picnic pavilions, beach access and an ADA-accessible observation tower that provides panoramic views of Tampa Bay, downtown St. Petersburg, downtown Tampa, and Florida’s amazing sunsets.
