

Dr. Jay Neal

Dr. Jay Neal is the Associate Vice President, Chief Operating Officer at the University of Houston at Sugar Land and at Katy. Over the past five years, he successfully executed strategic plans for both University of Houston instructional sites, including the opening of two new buildings.

As part of the strategic plans, Dr. Neal is responsible for identifying and bringing academic programs to the instructional sites that serve the business community needs, creating professional workforce pipelines. As a longtime Fort Bend County resident, it is his mission to build bridges between the business community and his neighbors, ensuring great career opportunities for great students.

He also serves as an associate professor at the Conrad N. Hilton College of Hotel and Restaurant Management, where he received his Bachelor of Science and Masters degrees. Dr. Neal received his PhD in Food Science at Texas A&M University.

He and his wife Shae have four children that all attended FBISD schools. He is very proud to call Sugar Land home.
