HOPE FOR JUSTICE

Law Enforcement Innovation Center
INSTITUTE for PUBLIC SERVICE

Cultural Competency for Law Enforcement receives nationwide funding. Host agencies are needed.

LEIC developed this ground-breaking training with the Museum of Tolerance in Los Angeles, California. Curriculum topics include diversity, self-reflection and self-awareness, de-escalation, critical decision-making, ethics, and bias-based policing. It also examines building trust and respect within the communities officers serve.

We now have funding to bring this training to your agency free of charge all across the United States. Contact jeff.hundley@tennessee.edu to host!

Basic Criminal Investigations

This 40-hour course will let students acquire basic knowledge of search and seizure, criminal investigation, and how to conduct it including the different types of crime scenes. Additional topics include how to conduct interviews and interrogations, how to identify and document the crime scene, and the collection of evidence. It will also inform students of how to call in for outside resources. *Tuition is waived for Tennessee agencies through grant funding.
