Hotels

At this time, our two blocks are sold out. We are working quickly to get another room block with discounted rates for you at a near by hotel. Continue to check these housing links as some people may cancel a reservation and a room might pop up.

The AMCA Annual Meeting

is the premier education and networking event for researchers, educators, vector control professionals, industry representatives, and students in mosquito control. Every year since 1938, hundreds gather to hear the latest research, share ideas, and form collaborations. Our educational sessions and exhibit hall help to put attendees on the cutting-edge of this ever-expanding field!

COVID-19 Guidelines

AMCA's 91st Annual Meeting is taking place in San Juan, Puerto Rico. AMCA will be following all logical health and safety requirements. Additionally, AMCA highly recommends all attendees are up to date on the COVID-19 Vaccination.
