

In-Person Course: NDAA's 2025 Domestic Violence Conference

October 7 - 9, 2025

San Diego, CA

NDAA's 2025 Domestic Violence training will cover victim centered approaches in domestic violence, sexual violence between intimate partners, dating violence, stalking, and other intimate partner violence. It will discuss policies that support victims such as communication, rapport building, trauma-informed prosecution, evidence-based practices and more!

Topics include:

- Understanding counterintuitive behavior of victims, the neurobiology of trauma, and how to conduct trauma-informed interviewing.
- DOJ's Guidance on Prosecuting Sexual Assault & Domestic Violence
- Protecting the victim's account through motion practice to lessen re-traumatization at trial.

- Working with victim specialists and community-based advocates to better serve victims.
- Corroborating a victim's account without eyewitness testimony or physical evidence
- Considerations to secure witness/victim testimony.
- Evaluating and prosecuting a case with and without victim participation.
- Wellbeing considerations for working with victims. Taking care of yourself.
- Red flag indicators including animal cruelty.
- Resources for victims.
- Best practices and more!

Cost:

Members: $855

Non-members: $995

If you would like to become a member, please join here (<https://ndaa.org/membership/join/>)!

Eligibility:

NDAA's mission to serve and support prosecutors and their staff. In consideration of this commitment, NDAA requires that all those in attendance of our programs currently work in or work closely with prosecution: NDAA invites prosecutors, investigators, victim advocates, witness coordinators and paralegals in local, state, tribal, federal and military government attorneys' offices, as well as law enforcement and other members of the multidisciplinary team.

If you are not sure about your eligibility, please contact training@ndaajustice.org