ABOUT

This conference will bring together experts and practitioners from across the nation to create a community of learning centered around the fair and successful prosecution of police misconduct. Participants will hear from expert speakers, individuals directly impacted by police misconduct, and colleagues with experience handling misconduct cases.

A discount of 15% is available to offices purchasing three or more tickets. If that applies to your office, please email greg@prosecutorsalliance.org for a discount code.

If you do not currently work at a prosecutor's office, please reach out to greg@prosecutorsalliance.org before registering.
