We are excited to announce the addition of a new reception on Tuesday afternoon, inspired by the valuable feedback we have received over the past few years. This event aims to foster greater integration among the boards, providing an opportunity for you to share your experiences, perspectives, and ideas with fellow board members, and to expand your library network. We sincerely hope you can join us.

To help us with planning, we kindly ask that you RSVP by November 15, 2025. Your timely response will help us arrange accommodations and meals and ensure a smooth event experience.

Should you have any questions or need further information, please don't hesitate to reach out to me at adecato@ebSCO.com. More information will be posted on the site as we get closer to the event.

We look forward to seeing you in La Jolla!
