

Office of the County Judge
Fort Bend County, Texas

Proclamation

Whereas, Texas hurricane season officially begins June 1st and ends November 30, 2011, and;

Whereas, the 624 mile Texas Gulf coastline, our area in particular, and areas of Texas hundreds of miles inland, are vulnerable to the devastating effects of a hurricane or tropical storm, and;

Whereas, both public and private entities should develop emergency response and recovery plans in accordance with local jurisdictions and local emergency management offices, and;

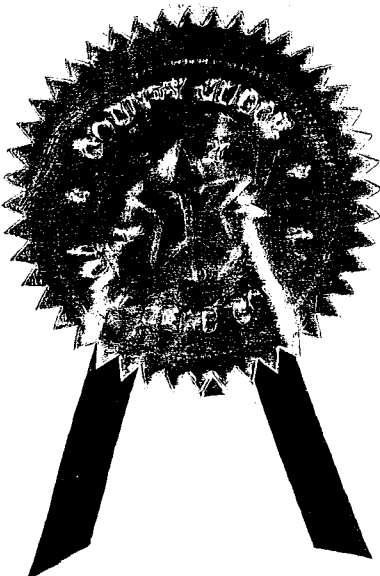

Whereas, the Governor's Division of Emergency Management, the National Weather Service, and the Fort Bend County Office of Emergency Management strongly suggest that all residents and visitors to this area be made aware of the potential dangers of these storms, and

Whereas, the best defense is preparedness and public education about the dangers of high winds, storm surge, flooding, and tornadoes that may occur for hundreds of miles in conjunction with a hurricane or tropical storm, and;

Whereas, Governor Rick Perry has declared the week of May 22-28, 2011, as:

Hurricane Awareness Week

In Fort Bend County, and I, Robert E. Hebert, County Judge of Fort Bend County, urge all citizens of this County to participate in hurricane preparedness activities, and to pay close attention to watch and warning instructions.

In Witness Whereof, I have caused the Official Seal of the Office of the County Judge to be affixed this 24th day of May 2011.

Robert E. Hebert, County Judge
Fort Bend County
