

VISION

- ✦ To unveil African - American History in a gallery-style museum located in the western most part of Fort Bend County, Texas.

The museum will symbolize the identity and struggle of proud, industrious, and determined people of color whose roots stem from this region.

GOALS

- ✦ Educate children of all ages, descendants of the community and the general public about the rich cultural heritage rooted in this geographical vicinity --the cradle of African American history in Fort Bend and surrounding counties.
- ✦ Showcase the evolution of pioneers, early inhabitants, and outside influences that contributed to the overall development of this broad geographic region.

~ Focus Era ~
1865 - 1965

MISSION

- ✦ To educate the public and preserve, promote and perpetuate the history and contributions of community settlements in this South Texas region from 1865 - 1965.

FBC Heritage Unlimited

- ✦ Museum invites friendly volunteers to greet visitors and help to preserve and showcase Fort Bend County history!
