H.B. 2043 amends Subsections (j) - (l) by modifying the procedures for appointing appraisal district directors to provide that the ballot prepared by the chief appraiser include those names timely submitted and that taxing units submit their votes to the chief appraiser before December 15, rather than November 15. The chief appraiser submits results to the taxing units before December 31. In the case of board vacancies, taxing units are required to submit their nominees' names to the chief appraiser within 45 days (previously 10 days) of notification of the vacancy. The change applies to the appointment procedures for the fall of 2003 for the directors whose terms begin January 1, 2004. Effective June 20, 2003.
