Request for Taxpayer
Identification Number and Certification

Give form to the requester. Do not send to the IRS.

Print or type
See Specific Instructions on page 2.

Name (as shown on your income tax return)

Jonas Carrero

Business name, if different from above

Check appropriate box: Individual/Sole proprietor Corporation Partnership Other ▶

Exempt from backup withholding

Address (number, street, and apt. or suite no.)

15141 Adelfina St.

City, state, and ZIP code

Sugar Land, TX 77498

Requester's name and address (optional)

List account number(s) here (optional)

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on Line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Note. If the account is in more than one name, see the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

| Employer identification number | | | | | | | | | |
| | | | | | | | | | |

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
- I am a U.S. person (including a U.S. resident alien).

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the Certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. (See the instructions on page 4.)

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS, must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

U.S. person. Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

- Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
- Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

For federal tax purposes you are considered a person if you are:

- An individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States, or

• Any estate (other than a foreign estate) or trust. See Regulations sections 301.7701-6(a) and 7(a) for additional information.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the recipient has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items:

- The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
- The treaty article addressing the income.
- The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.

lien encumbrance, license, reservation, condition or otherwise; and (c) the compliance of the Property or its operation with any laws, ordinances or regulations of any governmental entity or body. Grantee acknowledges that Grantee has inspected the Property and that Grantee is relying solely on Grantee's own investigation of the same and not any information provided or to be provided by or on behalf of Grantor. Grantee further acknowledges that any information provided with respect to the Property or other items conveyed hereunder was obtained from a variety of sources, and Grantor (1) has not made any independent investigation or verification of such information; and (2) does not make any representations as to the accuracy or completeness of such information. This conveyance is made on an "AS IS", "WHERE IS", and "WITH ALL FAULTS" basis and Grantee expressly acknowledges that, except as otherwise specified herein, Grantor has made no warranty or representation, express or implied, or arising by operation of law, including, but not limited to, any warranty of condition, title (except as specifically set forth and limited in this Deed), habitability, merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose with respect to the Property, all such representations and warranties, as well as any implied warranties being hereby expressly disclaimed.

By Grantee's acceptance of this Deed, Grantee agrees that Grantor shall not be responsible or liable to Grantee for any conditions affecting the Property, as Grantee is purchasing the same 'AS IS', "WHERE IS", and "WITH ALL FAULTS". Grantee or anyone claiming by, through or under Grantee, hereby fully releases Grantor, Grantor's employees officers, directors, representatives, attorneys and agents from any and all claims that Grantee may now have or hereafter acquire against Grantor, and Grantor's employees, officers, directors, representatives, attorneys, and agents for any cost, loss, liability, damage, expense, demand, action or cause of action arising from or related to any conditions affecting the Property. Grantee further acknowledges and agrees that this release shall be given full force and effect according to each of its expressed terms and provisions, including, but not limited to, those relating to unknown and unsuspected claims, damages and causes of action. This covenant releasing Grantor shall be a covenant running with the Property and shall be binding upon Grantee. Grantor hereby assigns without recourse or representation of any nature to Grantee, effective upon the execution and delivery hereof, any and all claims the Grantor may have for any such errors, omissions or defects in the Property. As a material covenant and condition of this conveyance, Grantee agrees that in the event of any defects, or other conditions affecting the Property, Grantee shall look solely to Grantor's predecessors or to such contractors and consultants as may have contracted for work in connection with the Property for any redress or relief. Upon the assignment by Grantor of Grantor's claims, Grantee releases Grantor of all rights, express or implied, Grantee may have against Grantor arising out of or resulting from any defects in the Property. Grantee further understands that some of Grantor's predecessors in interest may be or become insolvent, bankrupt, judgment proof or otherwise incapable of responding in damages, and Grantee may have no remedy against such predecessor, contractors, or consultants.
