

Office of the County Judge
Fort Bend County, Texas

Proclamation

WHEREAS, The youth and volunteers of any community are its greatest natural resource; and

WHEREAS, 4-H is one of the largest youth development organizations in Texas, with over 915,000 youth involved; and

WHEREAS, 4-H is an active, viable youth development organization in Fort Bend County; and

WHEREAS, 4-H is viable in Fort Bend County as a result of a partnership between Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service, Cooperative Extension Program, the Texas A&M System, and Fort Bend County Commissioners Court since 1918; and

WHEREAS, 4-H is celebrating National 4-H Week and Fort Bend County 4-H's participation in One Day 4-H, a statewide community service day where 4-H members give back to their community.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Robert Hebert would like to declare:

October 7-13, 2012 as National 4-H Week

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and have caused the Official Seal of the Office of the County Judge to be affixed this 9th day of October, 2012.

Robert E. Hebert, Fort Bend County Judge