

Proclamation

2015 National 4-H Week

WHEREAS, Fort Bend County is proud to honor the 4-H Youth Development Program of the Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service for 108 years of providing experience-based education to youngsters throughout the Lone Star State; and

WHEREAS, this admirable program, which seeks to provide a learning experience for the whole child, including head, heart, hands, and health, helps young Texans to acquire knowledge, develop life skills, and form attitudes to enable them to become self-directed, productive, and contributing members of our society; and

WHEREAS, the program undoubtedly could not have achieved the success that it has today were it not for the service of its more than 29,000 volunteers, who have given generously of their time, talents, energies, and resources to the youth of Texas; and

WHEREAS, throughout its proud history, the 4-H program has developed positive role models for countless Texans and through its innovative and inspiring programs, continues to build character and to instill the values that have made our state strong and great.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the County of Fort Bend, hereby designates October 4-10, 2015 as National 4-H Week in Texas and commends the 4-H Youth Development Program of the Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service and the many men and women who have made the program a success.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have caused the Official Seal of the Office of the County Judge to be affixed this 6th day of October, 2015.
