

THE STATE OF TEXAS §
COUNTY OF FORT BEND §

RESOLUTION IN SUPPORT OF
MODIFYING TRANSPORTATION CODE 172.001(7)
Definition of Rail Facilities of a Rural Rail District

WHEREAS, Fort Bend, Waller, and Brazoria Counties, Port Freeport, Prairie View A&M University, ten Texas cities, and numerous private firms and individuals are in support of the 36A Project, which consists three (3) Parts (1) deepening Port Freeport's channel and dockside water and improving its docks and freight handling equipment to accommodate the larger container ships that now can travers the Panama Canal; (2) building and operating a rail line from Port Freeport to the rail hub at Rosenberg, Texas; and (3) the widening of SH 36 from Port Freeport to Rosenberg, Texas and the construction of a new thoroughfare (SH 36A) from north of Rosenberg, Texas to US 290 at Prairie View, Texas and connecting from US 290 to SH 6 at Hempstead, Texas; and

WHEREAS, Fort Bend County and Brazoria County created the Brazoria Fort Bend Rural Rail District and added Port Freeport as a participant for the purpose of facilitating the construction of the railroad from Port Freeport to the rail hub at Rosenberg Texas; and

WHEREAS, Transportation Code 172.001(7) defines "rail facilities," to mean typical rail fixtures and equipment, such as right of way, trackage, rolling stock; and

WHEREAS, Fort Bend County believes that Transportation Code 172.001(7) should be modified to include "freight shuttle system" or an "innovative or intelligent technological transportation systems to improve the movement of freight and people" as "rail facilities" for purposes of this statute; and

WHEREAS, the Commissioners Court of Fort Bend County, Texas, finds that this resolution serves a public purpose.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT, Fort Bend County supports legislation modifying Transportation Code 172.001(7) to include "innovative or intelligent technological transportation systems to improve the movement of freight and people" as "rail facilities" for purposes of this statute.

Adopted by the Fort Bend County Commissioner's Court this 13th day of December, 2016.
