

THE STATE OF TEXAS §
COUNTY OF FORT BEND §

RESOLUTION IN SUPPORT OF
MODIFYING TRANSPORTATION CODE 370.003(14)
Definition of "Transportation Project"

WHEREAS, Fort Bend, Waller, and Brazoria Counties, Port Freeport, Prairie View A&M University, ten Texas cities, and numerous private firms and individuals are in support of the 36A Project, which consists of three (3) Parts (1) deepening Port Freeport's channel and dockside water and improving its docks and freight handling equipment to accommodate the larger container ships that now can traverse the Panama Canal; (2) building and operating a rail line from Port Freeport to the rail hub at Rosenberg, Texas; and (3) the widening of SH 36 from Port Freeport to Rosenberg, Texas and the construction of a new thoroughfare (SH 36A) from north of Rosenberg, Texas to US 290 at Prairie View, Texas and connecting from US 290 to SH 6 at Hempstead, Texas; and

WHEREAS, Fort Bend County and Brazoria County created the Brazoria Fort Bend Rural Rail District and added Port Freeport as a participant for the purpose of facilitating the construction of the railroad from Port Freeport to the rail hub at Rosenberg Texas; and

WHEREAS, Texas Transportation Code 370.003(14) defines a "Transportation Project" for purposes of inclusion in a "Regional Mobility Authority" in Texas, but does not include an innovative freight movement system; and

WHEREAS, Fort Bend County believes that Texas Transportation Code 370.003(14) should be modified to include "innovative or intelligent technological transportation systems to improve the movement of freight and people" as "Transportation Project" for a "Regional Mobility Authority" in Texas; and

WHEREAS, the Commissioners Court of Fort Bend County, Texas, finds that this resolution serves a public purpose.

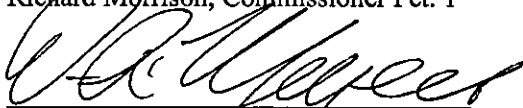

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT, Fort Bend County supports legislation modifying Texas Transportation Code 370.003(14) modifying "Transportation Project" to include "innovative or intelligent technological transportation systems to improve the movement of freight and people" as qualifying for a "Regional Mobility Authority" in Texas.

Adopted by the Fort Bend County Commissioner's Court this 13th day of December, 2016.
