MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

1. Party Responsible for Employees. During the period of assignment to the HTRA, all Parties will remain responsible for all salaries of their employees, including paying all required federal income taxes for employees, and providing all health insurance, worker's compensation, liability insurance or self-insurance coverage and benefits.
2. No Waiver of Immunities of Defenses. Nothing herein shall be construed as creating any personal liability on the part of any officer or agent of any public body as a result of executing this MOU. The Parties agree that no provision of this MOU is in any way intended to constitute a waiver of any immunities or defenses from suit or liability that a Party, its officers, employees or agents may have by operation of law. Neither the execution of this MOU nor any other conduct of any Party relating to this MOU shall be considered a waiver of any right or defense under federal law, the Texas Constitution or the laws of the State of Texas.
3. No Certification of Funds. The Parties understand and agree, such understanding and agreement being of the essence of this MOU, that the HPD has not certified any City funds under this MOU and no Party shall bring a cause of action against the City for payment of any City funds hereunder. To the extent that City receives grant funds for this MOU, such funds will be used in accordance with the grant requirements. When all grant funds have been expended, this MOU will automatically terminate unless the Parties are able to provide funding for its continuation.
4. Termination. A Party may terminate participation at any time without cause by giving 30 days' notice to the other Parties. Notice may be hand delivered to a Party, or to a specified address provided by a Party with a receipt obtained for such deliveries. Notice is deemed delivered when a receipt is obtained by the Party to whom the Notice is given or when placed in the U.S. Mail, certified mail, return receipt requested.

This MOU will be in effect for a period of three years beginning on October 1, 2016 to October 1, 2019, upon receiving grant funding, unless sooner terminated as noted herein.
