WELCOME to New Orleans for the Election Center's 34th Annual National Conference!

The Mississippi River, French flair and jazz all flow through the veins of the most unique city in the United States, New Orleans. Famous for its French and Spanish architecture, the city is a pleasure to explore. New Orleans is known for its buzzing nightlife and rich cultural history and there are plenty of ways to enjoy all of these.

Begin your visit to the Crescent City with a tour of the French Quarter. The 'Vieux Carre' is undoubtedly the heart of New Orleans and is rich in French heritage and interesting attractions. Pay a visit to the Falkner House and the Calbido before taking some time to meander slowly through the cobbled streets to truly appreciate the charming architecture. Head to Bourbon Street to see street performers in action. A less touristy spot to enjoy an authentic New Orleans experience is Frenchmen Street where entertainment and nightlife are less rowdy. On the trail of history, take in the National World War II Museum, which features a powerful collection of artifacts relating to the war. The New Orleans Museum of Art, the Backstreet Cultural Museum and the Louisiana Children's Museum are all renowned cultural symbols of the city. End your visit with a full day swamp tour of the bayous that surround the city and take in the rare mix of saltwater and freshwater with their unique fauna and flora.

Preceding the conference Saturday and Sunday will be four of our Professional Education Courses including two core and two renewal courses (you can only take one course since they are offered concurrently and you must be a graduate of the program to take a renewal class for credit).

This year's Conference attendees will be inspired and energized as we head into the final stretch of the mid-term Election year. We will share substantive elections issues including crucial critical infrastructure information, new updates from the investing in elections project, elections in review, information on new voting systems, the vendor exhibit area where you can learn about new and innovative voting system support and much more! This is the also the time to honor and celebrate the winners of the Election Center's acclaimed Professional Practices Papers' Program. You will not only hear the winning presentations but you will take home a CD with all of the innovative programs and ideas that were submitted by your colleagues in other jurisdictions around the country.

We will be celebrating those graduating from the Professional Education Program with the designation of CERA or CERV. The graduates will be recognized at a special ceremony and luncheon on Tuesday. At the end of the formal conference program, we offer an economically friendly optional tour on Wednesday so you can partake in the vitality of what New Orleans has to offer.

Enjoy the beautiful Sheraton New Orleans Hotel, 500 Canal St, New Orleans. DO NOT DELAY, make your reservations TODAY. If you have questions about the conference or the Sheraton Hotel, please call Pat Hawkins in our Conference Office at 916-686-7928.

Register on-line by going to our website: www.electioncenter.org

See you in New Orleans!

COURSE #5

Ethics in Elections and Voter Registration Administration

Instructor: Cindy Bowling, Ph.D.
Auburn University
Auburn, AL

Saturday August 25, 2018.....9:00 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.
Sunday, August 26, 2018.....8:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m.

As with all professionals, Election Administrators and Election Officials may not fully understand or appreciate their duties and obligations without also understanding the disciplinary rules and ethical mandates governing their professional activities. Yet professional codes of ethics may have the complexion of arbitrary prescription and proscriptions unless those parameters are founded upon well reasoned and generally accepted ethical precepts. This course will be concerned with identifying and explaining those precepts and with connecting those precepts to the Principles and the Standards of Conduct for Elections and Registration Officials.

COURSE #6
Communications

Instructor: Kelly Krawczyk, Ph.D.
Auburn University
Auburn, AL

Saturday August 25, 2018.....9:00 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.
Sunday, August 26, 2018.....8:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m.

Effective communication with the media, state legislatures and local boards and other entities involved with elections and voter registration is critical to maintaining budget and public support for the electoral process and for effective voter outreach and other public relations purposes. This course discusses effective communication with the media, state legislatures, local boards, and other entities involved with elections or voter registration is critical to maintaining budget and public support for the electoral process and for effective voter outreach and other public relations purposes. This course will provide the skills and principles important to effective representation of elections/registration departments and offices.

CREDIT FOR THIS COURSE IS GIVEN
ONLY TO GRADUATE STUDENT
RENEWING THEIR CERA STATUS

COURSE #13

The Policy Process Governing Elections and Voter Registration

Instructor: Mitchell Brown, Ph.D.
Auburn University
Auburn, AL

Saturday August 25, 2018.....9:00 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.
Sunday, August 26, 2018.....8:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m.

This course will encompass the policy-making process in the U.S. It will focus on the participants in the policy process; the process, intricacies and strategies of making legislation, policy, and rules; different theoretical models of policy-making and decision-making; creating goals and objectives with the formulation of a strategic plan; the basic concepts associated with successful implementation of policies and programs; and the rudiments of program evaluation.

We will incorporate and discuss policy issues that the seminar participants bring to the table, as well as implementation problems or program decisions that participants bring to the table.

CREDIT FOR THIS COURSE IS GIVEN
ONLY TO GRADUATE STUDENT
RENEWING THEIR CERA STATUS

COURSE #31

Election Storytelling: Effective Use of Information
About Operations and Finances

Instructor: Kathleen Hale, Ph.D., J.D.
Auburn University
Auburn, AL

Saturday August 25, 2018.....9:00 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.
Sunday, August 26, 2018.....8:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m.

Storytelling is a powerful communication tool, and particularly effective when working to align people or organizations around common goals and missions. Aligning goals and missions is important in the election environment, especially when seeking public funding, writing grants, and working with policy makers. This course uses the storytelling method to develop narratives to influence public funders and grant makers as well as those involved in public policy. Participants will create information displays and presentation outlines using election operations data and financial information to make the cases for funding, purchases, and policy change. All data and materials will be provided in the class

THE “BIG EASY” CITY TOUR

Wednesday, August 29, 2018, 9:00 A.M. – 5:00 P.M. *

We will start our journey through the historic French Quarter past famous landmarks such as the Saint Louis Cathedral and Jackson Square with its old world flavour and its own colorful art colony.

We will travel down Esplanade Avenue and visit St. Louis Cemetery, one of the unique “Cities of the Dead.” Next, you will see what were some of the most devastating spots in the city post Hurricane Katrina. The tour will be centered around viewing some areas that were completely under water. You will also see where the levee broke during the hurricane.

Next, sit back and relax as you wind down St. Charles Avenue following the country’s oldest streetcar line, see Tulane and Loyola Universities as well as beautifully restored mansions. All of the stories and facts will leave you with a real sense of New Orleans true spirit, its proud history and rich culture.

Venture off the avenue to one of New Orleans’ hottest strip of restaurants and shops to Magazine Street! Enjoy lunch on your own at some of the city’s go-to local uptown dining joints.

Following lunch, we will make our way over to where Mardi Gras is made. Since 1947, the artists and craftsmen have designed and built the oldest and biggest parade floats and attractions for each Mardi Gras season, with over 500 floats built and decorated each year. When you begin your Mardi Gras World tour, you’ll get an overview of the history of Mardi Gras in New Orleans before your guide takes you through the float den, where the artists work year-round to build spectacular floats and props. You never get this close to the floats while they’re rolling in Mardi Gras Parades, and this is certainly the only place to see how these amazing pieces come to life each year.

Wear cool casual clothes, comfy shoes and Don’t Forget The Camera!

*Because of traffic and other uncertainties the end time may not be exact.

Benefits and Services

The Election Center is the premier organization in the U.S. for the training and certification of election and voter registration administrators.

It is through the Election Center that professional certification as a Certified Elections/ Registration Administrator (CERA) or Certified Elections/Registration Vendor (CERV) can be earned. Membership in The Election Center not only sustains a professional staff operation dedicated to your profession, it also entitles members to certain benefits and services.

The Professional Education Program is the most extensive, comprehensive and award winning continuing education program available for elections and voter registration officials which can lead to certification as a Certified Elections/Registration Administrators (CERA) Vendor (CERV) and for Election Monitors from around the world as Certified Elections/Monitor (CEM).

Email Alerts are specialized information services which inform members about election-related legislation in Congress and then tracks the progress of legislation on its path to becoming a law. They also inform members of upcoming Election Center events and important news affecting elections and voter registration officials.

Job Banks offer the elections community the opportunity to list jobs with the Election Center for inclusion on our website and for distribution to our members nationally.

EC Surveys offer a variety of survey opportunities providing a great source of information and answers to various operational issues encountered by voter registration and elections officials.

EC Consultants offers members the opportunity for an internal review of their operations by a consulting team of experienced election officials. The consulting team will provide a total review of all office operations from small, medium to large jurisdictions; a review of a specific area of operations; or peer review program to study management, technology and operations issues. Call us today at (916) 686-7928 or email us at conferences@electioncenter.org to find out how your state can participate!

State Registered Election Officials Program (REO), the REO program is a joint venture between individual states and the Election Center with eight Core Courses taught by Election Center instructors. States can add additional courses and requirements, if they choose, resulting in designation as a State Registered Election Official (REO).

For more information on Membership levels and descriptions please visit our website www.electioncenter.org/membership.html
