Re: Waiver of fees, tax penalty for late payment

This letter is to dispute my delinquent tax fees added to annual tax bill that I did not receive before January 31 due date. I paid off my home in 2017 with Wells Fargo Mortgage (Loan # 3) all insurance/ tax bills were to be mailed directly to me; according to the WF representative. At the time of pay-off a Wells Fargo representative stated they would send me tax and insurance information directly to me so I can submit payments. This was not done, I received a late notice after the fact from all three agencies; was able to catch the other two but Fort Bend sent a late notice after the fact and informed me I had to send a letter to forward tax bill directly to me and state home is paid off-no mortgage. On March 19, 2018 I went to the Tax Assessor Office to deliver the letter and explain my case and pay the balance. Spoke with a clerk who stated my direct mailing information was placed into the system on February 20, 2018 after the tax due date! Original amount due was $1523.54 a payment of $1660.66 was made online by e-payment.

This is my formal notice that I, Merline Bradley-Faust is to receive all tax bill directly to my bill/home address at: 16726 Village Trace Drive, Houston, Texas 77053. I am requesting to dispute late, interest fees for account #5955-01-002-0470-907.

Sincerely,

Merline Faust
