Ed Sturdivant, County Auditor stated because this item did not state the funding source, the funding would come from the same resource other forensic examinations come from. This is not a separate cost center. Mr. Sturdivant indicated this item is reimbursed from the Attorney General's office.

Pamela Gubbels, Director of Finance and Investments, indicated this would be funded under Sheriff Enforcement Fees.

Michelle Turner, Chief - General Counsel, explained the agreement is for exams required by law. The County is required by law to pay for the exams, under the Penal Code, because they are sexual assault exams and there is a schedule of the reimbursable amount from the Texas Attorney General. Those are laid out in the agreement being asked to be approved today. The funding source is handled by the money management people; but components of the agreement, include the reimbursable amount from the AG and by law the County must have these exams and must pay for them.

Commissioner DeMerchant voiced his disapproval. He stated he has no disrespect for Carrie and will work with her moving forward; but she is not his pick and will not vote for her.

Judge George stated this is not an easy decision. He indicated he has been elected to serve the best for Fort Bend County. Judge believes Ms. Surratt's experience and understanding of the Tax Office will create a seamless transition and will be in the best interest of Fort Bend County's Taxpayers and Citizens and is in support of this motion.
