

Proclamation

- Whereas, Over 3 million registered nurses in the United States constitute our nation's largest health care profession;
- Whereas, the nursing profession plays a critical role in improving public health, patient outcomes, increasing access, coordinating care and reducing health-care costs, and
- Whereas, the depth and breadth of the nursing profession meets different and emerging public health and health care needs of the Fort Bend County residents in a wide range of settings, including serving and volunteering during the COVID-19 pandemic;
- Whereas, our reliance on nurses has never been more profoundly evident than during the coronavirus outbreak and nurses have displayed incredible examples of humanity, selflessness, and sacrifice;
- Whereas, a renewed emphasis on preventive and primary health care will require better utilization and appreciation of all of our nation's nursing resources;
- Whereas, additional qualified nurses will be needed in the future to meet the increasing complex needs of public health and health care needs of our community,

NOW, THEREFORE, The Commissioners' Court of Fort Bend County, Texas hereby declare the week of May 6-12 as NATIONAL NURSES WEEK in Fort Bend County, Texas

Proclamation

WHEREAS, National Police Week was established in 1962 by President John F. Kennedy along with a joint resolution of Congress to pay special tribute to those law enforcement officers who have lost their lives in the line of duty for the safety and protection of others; and

WHEREAS, On Peace Officers Memorial Day and during Police Week, we express our gratitude for the selfless public servants who wear the badge and put themselves in harm's way to keep us safe, and we pay respect for those who lost their lives in the line of duty; and

WHEREAS, These often unsung heroes risk their lives and sacrifice precious time with loved ones so that Fort Bend County residents can live in peace and security. But more than that, they are leaders in their communities, serving as mentors, coaches, friends, and neighbors -- working tirelessly each day to ensure that the people they serve have the opportunities that should be afforded to all Americans.; and

WHEREAS, The Commissioners Court of Fort Bend County encourages the people of our great County to observe National Police Week with appropriate ceremonies and activities that promote awareness of the vital role that law enforcement officers perform in service to our communities in which those officers serve.

NOW, THEREFORE, The Commissioners' Court of Fort Bend County, Texas do hereby proclaim the week of May 03-09, 2020 as NATIONAL POLICE WEEK in Fort Bend County, Texas

K. George

Proclamation

WHEREAS, From the arts and sciences to business and public service, nearly every facet of our society has benefitted from the talent, inspiration, vision, expertise, ingenuity, and sacrifice of Jewish Americans. We honor their spirit and resiliency during Jewish American Heritage Month and celebrate the myriad of ways they enrich Fort Bend County as well as our country, and

WHEREAS, Hatred is intolerable and has no place in our hearts or in our society. We must therefore vigorously confront anti-Semitic discrimination and violence against members of the Jewish community, and

WHEREAS, This month, we reaffirm our commitment to never compromise our steadfast support for the Jewish community, our rejection of anti-Semitic bigotry, and our disdain for malicious attacks of hatred.

NOW, THEREFORE, The Commissioners' Court of Fort Bend County, Texas on this 12th day of May declares the month of May 2020 as

JEWISH AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH

In Fort Bend County, Texas
