Olson acts to force vote on extending paycheck protection program through 2020

Olson

WASHINGTON, DC — Rep. Pete Olson (TX-22) on Sept. 25 acted to force a House vote to extend the much needed Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) that has helped companies stay open and save critically needed jobs. Olson signed H.Res.1116, a discharge petition that would trigger a House vote on H.R. 8265, the Paycheck Protection Program Extension Act.

Businesses cannot have more than 300 employees and must show a quarter reduction in gross revenues. Gross revenues are determined by the business comparing either their first or second quarter of 2020 to the same quarter of 2019. Maximum loans will be dropped to $2 million. Includes restrictions for those applying based on revenue and size. Businesses cannot get over $10 million on their first two PPP loans.

Keeps the 60-day requirements but extends eligible expenses to include covered operations expenditures, property damage, costs covered supplier costs and Personal Protective Equipment (PPE). Includes PPP eligibility to expand.

Certain organizations with 300 or less employees. Nonprofit organizations that help people with developmental disabilities. Sets aside $25 billion for entities that have ten or less employees as well as $10 billion for community lender loans. Expands safe harbor for lenders and simplifies the forgiveness process. Allows businesses to change the loan amount if they have received a larger loan before guidance.
