Registration Rates

IACP 2021 is a professional law enforcement event, open to IACP members, qualified non-members, and Exposition exhibitors. Due to limited capacities in place for health and safety, in-person attendance will be maximized for full-conference registration opportunities for IACP members and qualified non-members. IACP will not offer registration for guests, including family members and children at this time, nor will Exposition Only or day passes be available at this time.

In-person registration rates are for full conference access, including all general assemblies, workshops, the Exposition Hall, and Chiefs Night (details pending). In-person event attendees will also have access to the online platform for three months after the event (through December 15, 2021). Only IACP members can take advantage of the member registration rate. All IACP memberships are individual and non-transferable for conference registration member rates.

Online event registration includes access to all content on the online platform during and for three months after the event (through December 15, 2021).

Qualified non-members include sworn officers, first responders, public safety personnel, civilians, and members of the armed forces. Civilian employees of public safety and government agencies includes offices of police, sheriffs, EMS, fire hazard, hazmat; park rangers from federal, state, city, county, campus, and tribal agencies; and the armed forces. A valid form of identification will be required upon arrival. The IACP reserves the right to refuse ineligible registrations.

Mark your calendar and sign up early to save over 20%.

Join the IACP & Register at the First Time Member Rate

Join the IACP now and save! Non-members may submit their IACP Member dues along with the first-time IACP Member registration fee ($370) by completing the membership portion of the registration form. All new members must be sponsored by a current “Active” member. Memberships will not be processed without complete sponsor information, including the sponsor’s membership number.

IACP members attending the Annual Conference and Exposition for the first time can take advantage of a special discounted rate; $370 in advance and $445 on-site, savings of over 35%! The first-time IACP Member discounted rate must be taken at the time of the initial registration. Refunds cannot be given for incorrect registration submissions. IACP Membership Fees are in addition to the first-time IACP Member rate.

Law enforcement professionals at every level can qualify for membership in the IACP. Those in sworn command-level positions qualify for active membership; others may be eligible for associate membership. See the IACP website for details.

Health and Safety Protocols

Registrants attending the in-person portion of the conference will be required to agree to Meeting and Event Safety Protocols in place at the time of the event. During the registration process these will be outlined as to what is in effect at the time registration opens in May. Should protocols change to be more or less restrictive, updates will be shared prior to the event in various communications and this website.

At this time, protocols include the following:

- If you feel sick stay home or remain in your hotel room if already in New Orleans.
- Wear a properly fitting face mask.
- Adhere to physical distance protocols.
- Have your temperature checked before entering the convention center.
- Follow preventative actions including but not limited to, proper hand washing and covering your mouth and nose when coughing and sneezing.
