

Proclamation

WHEREAS, Koshy Thomas was born in Kerala, India before coming to the United States where he created a legacy for 35 years as the owner and publisher of Voice of Asia News Group, where he used his platform wisely, to be a positive influence on the immediate community and beyond; and

WHEREAS, his life was dedicated to the best interests of the community and his family, Koshy treated everyone, whether they were princes or paupers, with dignity and respect. He had the unique ability to see potential in others. Selfless service to others was Koshy's way of life; and

WHEREAS, Koshy was one of the initial founders and Director of the South Asian Chamber of Commerce, a past President of the India Culture Center (ICC), a Director of the Indo-American Charity Foundation, and many other endeavors; and

WHEREAS, Fort Bend County residents along with Koshy Thomas' family are blessed to have known him and been a part of his life, we extend to his family our sincere sympathy upon his passing; and

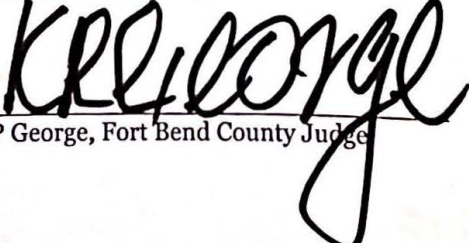

NOW, THEREFORE, I, KP George, Fort Bend County Judge, and the Commissioners' Court of Fort Bend County, Texas, do hereby posthumously proclaim the 12, day of October 2021, as

Koshy Thomas Day

In Fort Bend County in deep appreciation for his many contributions and dedication to the progress of the community

In Witness Whereof, I have caused the Official Seal of the Office of the County Judge to be affixed this 12 day of October 2021.

KP George, Fort Bend County Judge
