27. BUDGET & FINANCE:

Discuss and consider Amendments to the Fort Bend County American Rescue Plan Act Budget.

Judge George explained to the court there is a severe teacher shortage and believes it is important to become involved with receiving information and recommending a pilot program. The program will support FBISD with 25 students and will cost $175,000. There will be a MOU agreement with Fort Bend County, Fort Bend ISD and Houston Community College where these students will become teachers in training by the next academic year if the program is started now. The only commitment from the teachers is they will have to teach for two years in FBISD. Judge George also spoke about the severity of the housing problems in Fort Bend County; including 900 families who are receiving Rental Assistance ERA2. There are major nonprofit organizations coming together who are working on a proposal to bring to Commissioners Court to ask for seed money to help with reducing homelessness in Fort Bend County.
