2. Invocation and Pledges of Allegiance by County Judge Daniel Wong.

Invocation and Pledges of Allegiance by County Judge Daniel Wong.

Judge Daniel Wong made a statement. Today marks a new chapter for Commissioners Court and I stand here with both excitement and a deep sense of responsibility. I want to thank the members of the Commissioners Court, the County Clerk, and our County Attorney for their dedication of serving the people of Fort Bend County. Each member of this court brings experience, perspective and a voice that represents our community. I have no doubt that together we can do great things for Fort Bend. As your County Judge, I will lead with honesty, I will work to ensure our actions are open, our processes are clear, and our accountability is unwavering. Secondly, I will lead with integrity, that means doing what is right, even when it's not easy and even when it's not popular. Third, I will work every day to build and maintain trust among this court, trust with our staff and, most importantly, trust with the residents of Fort Bend County. I will work diligently, faithfully and always try to earn your trust. Thank you so much.

Item 34 continued - Human Resources:

Members of the Court heard from:

Nicole Ledet, Human Resources Director

Pamela Gubbels, Director of Finance and Investments

Commissioner McCoy

Bridgette Smith-Lawson, County Attorney

County Clerk Note:

Nicole Ledet stated Human Resources did not place this item on the Agenda.

Pamela Gubbels explained this item is to transfer $40,000 plus fringe, for a total of $52,520, from Non-Departmental Contingency into Salary accounts to pay for the salary of KP George through June. Ms. Gubbels clarified the funding source from Non-Departmental Contingency is used when something has not been budgeted.

Bridgette Smith-Lawson stated the Order suspending KP George did not declare or say with or without pay. Since the Order is unclear, we are deferring to pay suspension with pay unless or until there is an Order stating without pay. The funding source is not something the County Attorney's office will opine on.
